Student Council Would Ask For Yearly Activity Pass

The Student Council is busily making plans for a campus-wide referendum on a student activities season ticket. The referendum will be the result of action taken by the Council on a report submitted during the Dec. 6 meeting, by Reigh Carpenter and Don Mills of the Council and Gail Moshier and Dave Zimmer of the Student Council Advisory Committee.

The committee, at the request of the Council, made a study of the feasibility of the sale to the students of a season ticket entitling the bearer to admission to the football and basketball games played at home, as well as admission to other campus social functions sponsored by the Social Activities Committees.

The plan adopted by the Council provides, in its tentative form, for a book of coupons which would be sold to each student at registration for $15.00 per year. The purchase price of the book would be in addition to the tuition charges of the University, but would be payable by the government under the G. I. Bill for veteran students.

The coupons thus issued would be exchangeable for tickets to designated dances and for admission to all the home football and basketball games as well as for the purchase of the yearbook. The cost to the student without the use of a season ticket would be approximately $31.10.

$7.50 Per Semester

The Council approved this plan with the provision that one half of the total cost, or $7.50, should be collected per semester from each student. This method of collection was approved so that the student paying his own bills would be able to meet the expense of the ticket more easily.

The committee emphasized in its report that it was felt that, since the charge for the season ticket was to be made over and above the regular tuition and registration charges, the income from the sale of season tickets should in no way

Scribe Wishes All A Merry Christmas, A Happy New Year

Because of the Christmas and New Year's vacation the SCRIBE will suspend publication until the second week in January. In the meantime, the entire staff, from the copy boy to the Board of Editors, wishes you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Carols, Drama for Christmas Show At Klein, Dec. 15

President James H. Halsey will address the faculty and students with Christmas greetings, at 2 p.m., Wednesday in Klein Memorial. At this assembly the music department and the Office of Campus Productions, jointly will present a program of Christmas music and a play, "A Christmas Letter", by Mr. Albert Dickason.

There will be a candlelight procession, directed by Mr. Arden Whitacre, instructor of music. The chorus will sing "Today there is Ringing", and an old French carol, "Angels O'er the Fields".

Vocal solos will be sung by students of Mr. Philip Jones, instructor of voice; they are John Breithaupt, "O Holy Night," Muriel Vecherelli, "Away in a Manger," Doris Bauersfeld, "I'm Dreaming of a White Christmas," and Andrew Pappas, "The Lord's Prayer."

Brass Choir and Vocals

Mr. Edward F. Byerly, head of the music department, will conduct the group in carol singing to the accompaniment of the brass choir. The Brass Choir is a section of the UB Band which made a splendid showing in the Football Banquet held in the Ritz during November.

A vocal quartet with Muriel Vecherelli, Doris Bauersfeld, Andrew Pappas, and George M. Metzger will sing "Lo, How A Rose," and "While Shepherds Watch Their Flock By Night."

The play "Christmas Letter," portrays a soldier writing home and reminiscing about Christmas at home. His thoughts are illustrated by tableaux and background music.

Cast and Staff Listed

The Campus Productions staff and cast are as follows: Mr. Albert Dickason, author and director; Everett Matson, business manager; Norden Hahn, stage manager; John Karlac, assistant stage manager; Bertram Arthur, lighting; Carol Buck, costumes and art director. Special costumes were designed by Mrs. Sime Neary.

"Fitz" Heads List of New Class Officers

James Fitzsimmons was elected to the first senior class presidency as 750 students elevated twenty of their classmates to positions of class office in an election held this week. He defeated Ann Jacobs and Ed. Flynn to gain the office.

The election results were announced and the newly named officers honored at the Christmas Ball held in the Ritz Ballroom Friday evening where nearly 700 students danced to the soft music of Larry Clinton and his orchestra. During a thirty minute radio broadcast of the dance band from the Ritz, WNAB, announced the names of the new officers to their listening audience.

In the junior class race Ed Kost nosed out Joe Biafore, James Gaffney, and Henry Kornacki for the top office.

Three students, Greta Anderson, Marty Ryan, and Betty Smith, were elected by the freshman class to represent them on the Student Council. They will take their place on the campus governing board immediately.

Other Officers

Joining Fitzsimmons as new officers of the first senior class in UB history are John Saccone, vice-president; Marilyn Cote, secretary; Eric Erickson, treasurer; and Ethel Jacobovitz, historian.

The junior class elected Thora Carr as vice-president; Kay DeWitt as secretary; Everett Matson as treasurer, and Robert Paulson as historian.

Jane Kelly was elected vice-president of the sophomore class; Lois McMellon, secretary; Muriel Vecherelli, treasurer, and Frank Driscoll, historian.

Elected with Tim Ramik as freshman class officers were Joan Hutchinson, vice-president; Ruth Bowden, secretary; Patricia Kelly, treasurer; and Thelma Foley, historian.

Students to See Hamlet Tonight; Pay Next Year

If UB students do not attend Margaret Webster's production of "Hamlet" at the Lyric theatre tonight, Dec. 14, it will in no way be the fault of President James H. Halsey who late Saturday afternoon authorized thirty-one student agents to sell tickets for the stage production, with the stipulation that they need not be paid for until Jan. 15.

To further stimulate sales among the students, President Halsey promised each agent a free pass for every $10 worth of tickets he distributed.

The action came as the result of an emergency meeting called to determine how best to promote the lagging ticket sales for the play being sponsored by the Faculty Women's Club. Attending the meeting were representatives from the student body, the faculty, the council of deans, the Faculty Women's Club, Lyric theatre, as well as high administrative officials.

Buy Now, Pay Later

Student agents were authorized to sell tickets on the cuff to any student enrolled in the University. At the time of the sale the student buying the ticket must sign a slip indicating that he will meet the bill by the end of the semester. Tickets may be purchased on both campuses until six o'clock Tuesday. They are available at $1.20, $1.80, and $2.40.

The University will sponsor a cast party in the Stratfield hotel following the performance to express appreciation to the cast and to those who are sponsoring the show. Student ticket agents have been invited to attend the party.

Excellent Cast

Carol Goodner, Alfred Ryder and Joseph Holland are the stars of the play which is currently making a tour of colleges and universities throughout America. Tickets for the production may be purchased on both campuses (Continued on Page 3)

UB Welcomes Brotherhood Association

By BILL ORRIS

The United Brotherhood Association, an organization inspired by Eugene C. Citrano and Vincent F. Sica, devoting itself to the advancement of inter-relations among the classes and the various religious, nationality, and social groups within the University and intending eventually to establish itself as a national organization, was recently founded at UB, following its approval by the Board of Trustees.

The new group, headed by Mr. Citrano, temporary president, and Mr. Sica, temporary vice president, at the present time consists of twenty members. It is expected that membership will be increased to 75 or 80 by May, 1949 and, later in the year, to its estimated full quota of 150 members.

Temporary Officers

Other temporary officers of the association include Joseph Mirsky, recording secretary; Joseph Hillson, corresponding secretary; Donald Jones, treasurer, and Daniel Walker, assistant treasurer. Professor Robert P. Akers has been selected as the faculty adviser.

This group proposes to further campus relations by stimulating and developing greater student participation in all University affairs. Although the function of the association will in time become national in scope, for the present it will confine its activities to the (Continued on Page 3)

Recommendations For Snack Bar Improvements Go to Officials

Recommendations for the improved operation of the Fones Annex Snack Bar by a committee of the Student Council were presented to Dr. Henry W. Littlefield, vice president of the University, last Wednesday by Thomas McGannon. Some of the ideas already are being implemented.

Dr. Littlefield has issued a requisition for a book rack, to be constructed along one of the walls, similar to the one in the Fairfield Campus Snack Bar, to help relieve the congestion at the tables.

Contacts are being made for the installation of two coke or soft drink machines, one cigarette machine and one candy machine, and for the replacement of the low capacity sillex coffee makers with a larger urn system, to alleviate the early morning bottleneck at the counter.

Other recommendations under consideration are for rearranging the work areas at the counter to allow the students to return dishes without obstructing the waiting line and service. Tables placed at the end of the counter near the dishwasher would expedite this service, it was suggested.

An equal division of labor for the personnel behind the counter was recommended to eliminate confusion and duplication of effort. The location of the cash register at the end of the counter would help in this respect, the committee said.

Hours of Operation

Regarding hours of operation, the committee recommended one half hour, from 3 to 3:30 p.m., to clean the Snack Bar; remaining open until 10 p.m., so dormitory students can visit the Snack Bar during the 9 to 10 p.m. hour that they are permitted to do so, and remaining open Friday evenings to encourage its use for dormitory or small informal organization-sponsored dances.

The demonstration of an active effort by the Administration will create immediate student support to keep a cleaner and more efficient Snack Bar, the committee concluded.

Parrs to Attend WSA Executive Meeting, Dec. 27-30 in Chicago

Chris Parrs, NSA Southern New England regional chairman, will be one of the thirty students from colleges throughout the country to attend the National Executive Committee meeting of the US National Student Association in Chicago, Dec. 27-30.

The students will consider all problems regarding life on the National, Regional and Campus level.

You're Missing a Lot if You're Not in a Club

By EV MATSON

What type of a person are you when it comes to extra-curricular activities?

Analyze yourself and see if you are really an asset to the college and to humanity. I am sure that most of you will find that you are useless beings attending college just for a piece of parchment paper.

In talking to Bridgeport business men, who are your potential employers, they readily admit that they prefer the student who has average marks with a well rounded experience in extra-curricular activities. These activities, no matter how diversified, gives the student knowledge of many phases, practical experience, and a degree of leadership ability. All of these are needed for a successful pursuit of a career.

Clubs for All

At this university, there are enough clubs and organizations to satisfy everyone's wishes. They are all offered for your benefit and it is only through your continued cooperation that these organizations can expect to continue. Lately, clubs have been formed to meet specified interests, stamp and bridge clubs, which will show you that the college is interested in expanding into any field that will attract student interest.

In the many clubs on campus we find an overlapping of the same students; the ones who wish to see this University progress. Why don't you help out? You are all needed! The average student participation in all-college affairs and clubs has been pathetic and you must help to remedy this situation if you expect your piece of parchment paper to mean anything. You may not realize it, but you are the ones who will rate this college, it is your efforts that will make it great.

In the past two years Greek letter groups have sprung up in an effort to bring together all types of students. They have done a magnificent job in furthering student interest and advancement of student welfare. Greek letter groups are offering the students a diversified social calendar. They are creating good fellowship, personality development, intellectual leadership, social poise, and practical experience. These benefits are not just confined to their memberships, their activities are widespread and affect everyone at the college. Every day they are playing a more prominent part in college development and organization, and it is expected by this writer that they will go much further than current authorities expect!

Try Some Out

We are advancing along the right path, but your help is needed. Too many of you have the wrong slant on extra-curricular activities. Give them a chance, try something yourself... I'll guarantee that you receive much more out of your college life if you do something. But, belonging is not enough. You must work for these benefits. Join up now... but beware... yes, beware... I can tell you of ten maxims which can kill an organization. Stop! Look! and Listen! Don't let yourself fall into any of these categories.

1. Join and be proud you are a member, but never attend meetings.
2. If you go, always be late... the rest will wait for you.
3. The weather is a good excuse: too hot or too cold. You arrange this to suit your taste.
4. Never accept an office, let George do the work. It is a lot easier to criticize what the others are doing.
5. The cliques are running the show... so why should you bother about it. Always get sore when you are not on an important committee.
6. Do not express your opinion; someone else will handle it. But always have a lot to say, after it is over. Get on the outside to express your opinions... this will help.
7. Be a member and get all the benefits but always be delinquent in your dues. The treasurer does not have anything to do except send out statements. You can throw them in the waste basket.
8. Never serve on a committee. You do not have the time and someone else will do it anyway. But always criticize others efforts; you could have done it better anyway.
9. Never praise your organization. Be a wise guy, a critic. People will probably listen to your complaints and agree with you.
10. Who is this guy to tell me what to do or offer suggestions; I make twice as much as he does and I am a lot smarter... convince yourself of this fact. It will help destroy a lot of things that are good.

Take heed to what has been written here... you don't want to be one who finds out after it is all over... you cannot push a person up a ladder unless he is willing to climb a little himself.

Television Star Speaks

Patricia Vance, head of the Patricia Vance schools of fashion and photographic modelling in Chicago and Miami, was the guest lecturer last Friday in Mr. William F. Fitzgerald's advertising classes. Miss Vance, known as the "most televised girl in America," is Mr. Fitzgerald's daughter and was a Powers model at the age of sixteen. She spoke on the future of television and the need for new talent and ideas for scripts and commercials.

Rodman to Speak

Mr. Perry Rodman will speak at Fones Lecture Hall, 8 p.m., Tuesday evening on "Municipal Accounting and Its Relationship to City Government." Mr. Rodman, former comptroller of the City of Bridgeport, is now executive vice-president of Wolverine Motors, one of the leading manufacturers of marine engines. The lecture is the second in a series of six sponsored by the Beta Alpha, accounting fraternity, and all students are invited.

An all-German Christmas party for members and guests of the German club has been planned for Thursday, 7:30 p.m., in Bishop Lounge, Harry Bandazian, club president, has announced. The program will include the singing of German Christmas carols, music by the German band, movies, and refreshments. Dr. Eric Marcus, adviser of the club, will give a description of celebrating Christmas in Germany.

Schafer Heads Committee

Dr. Joseph Schafer of the UB history department has been named to the Berigan Memorial Committee of the University of Wisconsin. The committee, composed of teachers and individuals familiar with American culture, gathers and assimilates cultural information from all over the United States.

A Bridge Club is being formed on the University campus with more than 30 students already indicating that they would be interested. An organizational meeting will be held the first week in January at which time Mr. Justine Ricker of the Stratfield Hotel Bridge Club will be present to help start the UB club.

Attention: Veterans!

All veteran supply cards must be turned into the Book Store or at the telephone switchboard in Fones Hall before Friday, the Bursar's Office has announced. It has been necessary to advance the date for turning in the cards. William McNamara, bursar, said, and it is hoped that the students will plan their supply needs ahead for the remainder of the term.

The cards will be void after Friday. New cards for the second semester will be issued during registration in February.

UB students interested in adding free records to their collections are urged to listen to WNAB's "Fun With The Phone" program at 10:45 a.m., Saturday. Questions will be asked about record labels and those students who have registered at Stanton's Record Store, Fairfield and Harrison, will have priority on the calls.

Riding Club Officers

The Horseback Riding Club had its first ride Sunday, Dec. 5, at the Sunny Acres Riding Academy and future rides are planned each Sunday with all members of the University cordially invited to attend.

Officers of the club include: Jack Kanuch, president; Phoebe Warshaw, vice-president; Ginny Killeen, secretary; and Lillian Papalin, treasurer.

Mr. Anthony Jevayian, coordinator of the cooperative work study program of the University is on tour studying work study education plans now in operation in other institutions.

A special Christmas assembly will be presented Wednesday afternoon at 2 p.m., in the Klein Memorial. Due to the length of the program, period 8 will not start until 3:20 on the Seaside Campus and 3:30 on the Fairfield Campus. In addition periods 8, 9, 10, and 11 will be cut to 45 minutes.

Bernard to Speak

The UB chapter of the Society for the Advancement of Management, will present Mr. Harold Bernard, sub-district director of the United Steel Workers, C.I.O., who will speak on Labor Relations, Wednesday night at 8 p.m. Mr. C. L. Scafe, manager of merchandising at the General Electric, will speak on marketing, Thursday, 8 p.m., in the Old Library, on Fairfield Campus.

Miniature class rings for junior and senior coeds may now be ordered through the newly elected officers of either class, or at the office of Student Activities.

All orders must be accompanied by a ten dollar deposit and should be placed on or before January 31, for delivery in May. The price of the ring is $22.50 plus tax.

Campus Notes

Joseph Quire Elected

Engineering students elected Joseph Quire as chairman at their initial meeting Dec. 8, when plans for a series of programs to which all engineering and related students are invited were discussed. Also, elected were: George Canuel, vice-chairman; George Huggens, secretary; Eugene Bradley, treasurer; and Donald Russell, public relations officer. Mr. Chas. O. Kishabay, of the engineering department, is faculty adviser.

The new dormitory, located at 540 State Street, operating independent of the university is now occupied by a group of UB students. Organization plans are now being formulated by the men, and they soon hope to be recognized as the first independent dormitory of the university.

UB Surpasses Quota

Although the Bridgeport-Stratford Community Chest Drive obtained only 81.1% of its goal, Dr. Littlefield announced last week that the University had reached 139.7% of its quota. Included in the total was a pledge for $240 by the American Society for the Advancement of the Shmoos, Inc. Contributions for the Community Chest are still being accepted and may be deposited at the Public Relations Office in Fairfield Hall.

The Campus Commission voted Dec. 9 to hold a joint meeting of Commission members, administration, faculty and civic group representatives this week to discuss the formation of a National Sub-commission on Human Relations and Educational Problems.

Engineering Committee

Plans are being formulated by the Engineering Department for the formation of a student faculty committee which will offer suggestions on problems pertaining to the construction of the new technology building. Students interested in serving on this committee should contact Mr. Bodnar at the Engineering Department office.

A check for $500 recently earned the Elks the distinction of being the first fraternal organization to contribute to the University development fund... The Board of Trustees are considering plans to start a chapter of the United World Federalists at UB.

Incidentally Speaking

By JAMES DLUGOS

If no one objects too vehemently, the items presented under this heading in the future will differ in character from what they have been in the past. No longer will the reader of this column be able to get a quick glance at what's happening here at UB. For that they must read "Campus Notes".

Instead, we are going to preview the things that are going to, or that might possibly happen in the future; and/or why something didn't happen in the past. Eventually, we hope that this will become similar to an informal discussion of the facts of life—college life at UB.

It'll be devoted to promotion of those activities which you the students believe need a little push and in a like manner it will attempt to level off those few groups on our campus (should any exist) that you, the students, feel need a little plain talking to.

We'll discuss the pros and cons of such things as the formation of sectarian and political clubs on the UB campus, the affiliation of our fraternities with national outfits, the serving of drinks at college sponsored affairs, the snack bar problems, the parking and bus problems, the establishment of the purchase card system, and just about everything else we as students happen to be interested in.

If you're interested we'll even discuss and explain why we are forced to run so many ads per issue.

This type of discussion column cannot help but lead to an interesting and informative live-letter column as well. Worked intelligently, the two can be of real service to those making the rules and regulations which we as students must follow, as well as providing interesting material for your fellow students to read. So tell us what you think. It might make life at UB easier for you or for the students that will follow in the pathways you create.

To the Editor of Scribe:

Every student at UB feels a certain amount of pride in his school. This includes the physical appearance as well as the academic standard maintained. In regard to physical aspects, the recent planting of a lawn around Fones Hall indicates that the administration is also conscious of that appearance. But it amazes me that the administration should put forth all this effort when it seems quite apparent that the lack of adequate sidewalk facilities leading to the entrances will only mean dilapidated fences and bare earth where grass was intended. More sidewalk would make a much healthier lawn and much less need for that obnoxious "Keep Off the Grass" sign.

WILLIAM BROWN

To the Editor of Scribe:

Do you think the commuters should have a club? Unofficial sources report that there is a strong movement underway to organize just such a group as this, for the sole purpose of increasing the "social aspect" between fellow UB student travelers.

"The situation is pretty rough socially," reported one student when asked this question. "There should be some sort of organization that would help the commuters to get to know one another", opined another commuter.

Although no definite moves have been made to organize a commuters club, the consensus of opinion is that the commuters want this type of organization. A STUDENT

The University basketball team made their debut in not such grand style by dropping a 74-48 decision to Iona College of New Rochelle last Saturday night.

The cause for it will be repeated often this season. It was a battle of good little men versus good big men, with the Purple and White starting five averaging under the 6' mark, and the Gael's averaging over 6' 3".

Stanislao, 6' 5" center was outstanding as he controlled both backboards as well as hitting the hoops for many seemingly impossible shots. Since the University was defeated by Iona, the Gael's have trimmed Adelphi College running their score in the nineties. By this it seems evident that the University's crew were better on the defensive than it appeared on the surface.

Hofstra Scouted UB

Comparative scores are generally more accurate in basketball than in football. If this is true then, the Hofstra game should be much closer than the Iona game, although there were two Hofstra scouts eyeing Bridgeport last Saturday.

To refresh basketball fan memories, last year Hofstra defeated UB 80-57 after trailing by four points at the halftime. We were a twenty point underdog as the game commenced, but as big Ed Lengyel started sinking shots from all sides, (he made 22 points that night) and Bob Friedman and Johnny Barron were controlling the backboards although playing against taller men, many an eye-brow raised.

However Barron and Friedman fouled out early in the third quarter, and Frank Reilly, Hofstra coach, used three teams of equal potency until our backs were broken. Hence the 80-57 score.

Swim Team Wins

The University's swimming team, which went all last season without a win, started their 1948 season with an upset over a highly favored Manhattan outfit last Saturday afternoon at Manhattan's pool in New York City.

Winning by a slim margin of 39-36, the meet was nip and tuck until the final event of the day, the 400-yard relay race, which was the margin of victory for either team. Doug Kunzler, Ed Webb, Captain George Pappas, and Tony Lombard captured the event in 4:11 time. Pappas and Lombard previously had won first place in 200 yard free-style and 50 yard free-style respectively. Pappas also took first place in 200 yard breast-stroke.

The University basketball quintet will travel to New Haven, Wednesday, Dec. 15, to tangle with the New Haven Teacher's five in the Groff Street Armory.

It will be the fourth start of the season for the Glinesmen. After stopping the UB Alumni 75-46 they fell before a strong Iona quintet 74-48.

New Haven will be vying for their first taste of UB blood. In the 1947-48 season, the first year the schools encountered, UB topped NHST twice, 76-62 and 83-63.

The game which is open to all free of charge is scheduled for 4 o'clock.

The Glinesmen will play host to St. Anslem's College at the State Armory, Dec. 17.

Probable starting lineup for the game with New Haven is Castellucci and Casimiro as forwards; Doca in center position with Daly and Friedman guarding.

Cheerleaders Prove Clubs Can Be Fun

"Football in '48" brought more to the University than a varsity squad with three victories, one tie, three defeats and a $15,000 cash deficit.

Swept into existence as by-products of the eleven were such things as "The girl we'd most like to tackle," the Shmoosday celebration and parade, the enormous pre-season football dance at Lenny's Wagonwheel, and the Bridgettes. But born almost unnoticed was the UB Cheerleaders' Association, the greatest bunch of recruited spirit that the school has witnessed in a long time.

Like Veteran Performers

The actual formation of the association was no less spectacular than the establishment of the top-notch varsity squad itself. Because the cheerleaders have performed like veterans at each of the eight grid games this fall, and the few basketball contests already played this season, they are taken for granted, taken for upper classmen who have worked with the squad for a year or more previous to the current sports season.

The fact is, they aren't. With the exception of popular Gerry Wilkins, the cheerleaders are not only new to the association, but they are also new at the University.

Girls Married

What happened to the girls that cheered at the varsity basketball games last season? Looking through their records just two weeks before the initial game, Reigh Carpenter, Gridiron Week boss, found that last year's cheering squad's six members were either married or just too busy to come out for the squad this fall.

No Response

With the season's opener only a few short days away, Reigh appointed Jim Dlugos as "cheerleader coordinator." This was still a week and a half before the student body returned to the campus for the fall term. With nothing in sight but a few phone numbers of volunteers, the roundup began.

Two or three meetings later the coordinator was ready to hire out Warren Harding High School's cheerleaders for the game with Long Island University. It appeared that no one wanted to cheer.

Last Resort

But, like Hal Beardsworth, who helped organize the varsity so that he might play on it, one of the girls, Jane Kelley, refused to give up hope and one last desperate practice session was called. What happened or what caused twenty fellows and girls to attend that practice meeting, no one knows. But they came, stayed, and formed a cheerleading club, and they've cheered at every one of our varsity games since.

Present Members

Present members of the organization are John Carlson, president; Jean Peterson, secretary; Jimmy Waxman, field captain, and Eleanor Dori, Lois McMellon, Ruth Bowden, Jane Kelley, Marilyn Wilkenfield, Steve Kost, Alfred Friederich, Mark Rosenberg and Dave Halpern. Miss Mary Dorn and Mr. Anthony Iannone are the faculty advisor and trainer for the squad. The squad meets every Wednesday in Bishop House basement at 7:30 p.m. The requirements for membership are not rigid and students who would like to join are invited to do so. All that is needed is a good set of lungs and some of that much-talked-of stuff, School Spirit.

Nite Student Bill Maher On LIZ Staff

By MARGARET BEPKO

The next sleepy voice you hear (if you're up that early) is that of Bill Maher, WLIZ staff announcer and evening student at UB. Bill's day begins with the early morning news and weather broadcasts, and ends (officially, at least), with his two evening courses, American Literature and American History.

A resident of Palisade, N. J., he attended St. Peter's College there, after which he worked with a dramatic stock company on WOR. Always a patron of the theatre, Bill set acting as his goal before entering the fascinating field of radio.

While serving with the Army, he did special service radio work with the 94th Infantry Division, and in 1945 took part in an Army documentary film made in England. Bill recalls with much pleasure the four months' course in a London dramatic school, which he received under Army sponsorship.

Previous Experience

After being discharged, he attended the School of Radio Technique in New York. Actually, this course was a "filler," taken while he was trying to secure theatre engagements, but in him radio found a new enthusiast. He has worked with several broadcasting studios, including WSTC in Stamford and WGBB in Long Island.

Employed by LIZ since February,

UB Ski-sters Flock to Mountains for Vacation

Bill claims to be a jack-of-all-trades, being newscaster, disc-jockey, and the unofficial hot jazz expert of the studio.

His hobby is the theatre, all phases of it, and his tastes in music range from Debussy to Stan Kenton. His eventual aim is radio producing.

Dormitory, Lab For UB in Fall

The acquisition of the Mary R. Curry property on Myrtle and Linden Avenues by the University as the third piece of property added to the Seaside Park campus within the last four weeks, was announced last week by Vice-President Henry W. Littlefield. The new property adjoins the Randolph lot located at Park Place and Myrtle Avenue where will be built the University's new engineering-technology building to house the University's College of Engineering.

The two-family brick dwelling consisting of 12 rooms, will be converted into a dormitory for the coming fall semester. The large garage of brick construction with a floor space of 3,000 square feet, will be renovated for use as an engineering laboratory in conjunction with the new technology building.

This acquisition is the fifth block-long property on the Seaside Park Campus secured by the University and runs to twenty the total acreage now owned by the institution.

Thirty UB Ski Club members and their friends will travel to New Hampshire for a week long ski holiday during the Christmas vacation for the first of a series of winter activities planned by the group. They will be in the ski area from Dec. 26 to Jan. 8. "Instructions and plenty of practice for all will be the major aim of the trip," according to Norman Hansen, ski club president. About a dozen beginners are among the thirty students making the trip, the club president said.

Everything Planned

Members of the club, whose roster includes students from both the day and evening divisions, will stay at the winter-home of the Reverend and Mrs. David Hatch, near Laconia, New Hampshire. Mrs. Hatch will accompany the students on the trip. Ed Woerner, ex-army mess sergeant, will act as chief cook and bottle washer for the week.

The club, a member of the Connecticut Ski Council and the U. S. Eastern Amateur Ski Association, is currently laying the foundation for a Connecticut Inter-collegiate Ski Meet to be held some time in January at the Mohawk Ski Area near Cornwall, Conn.

Officers of the club are Norman Hansen, president; Frison Bouslas, vice-president; Terry De Kovessery, corresponding secretary; Sibbie Hatch, recording secretary; and Jack Stewart, treasurer.

NEW ROOM REGULATIONS

Because more organizations have been planning meetings than there are rooms available, it has become necessary to require that proposed dates for all University events, other than regular classes must be cleared with Mr. Charles Petitjean. No organization will be granted the use of room facilities unless authorization has been given by Mr. Petitjean. Authorization slips may be obtained at the switchboards at either campus or at Mr. Petitjean's office. Only those events cleared through Mr. Petitjean can appear on the official campus calendar.

Foneyville Follies

Ray Clarke

What can I say in an opening paragraph after "Rudyard" Donaldson's stirring Thanksgiving declaration in the last issue of Ye Olde Scribe?

And now to the news that ol' Jim and space (that Chesterfield ad keeps getting bigger and bigger!) will allow: Gil Brusseau (he weakly submitted to "The Bonds" whilst everyone else enjoyed the Thanksgiving breather) is back on the campus... floating about two feet off the ground, he's not logging those extra hours in the Snack Bar like before!... When I started school here last year, someone mentioned the word "University". Last week I spotted two of UB's local belles—Shelia Stewart and Enid Weiss downtown on a Christmas shopping trip, complete with roller skates!... I wonder if Harding will accept UB's credits?

Parties and Partings

Gerry Wilkens had a surprise party for her boy Stew "Mammy" Baker last week... John Cox and Jo Mercurio stole the show by presenting Stew with one large size piece of ham!... Dan Greany dropped in and mumbled a few words in his new voice... incidentally, the lad wishes to thank the numerous wheels, spokes and honest, American students (choose one!) who sent him a word of cheer whilst he had his tonsils stolen (I can't spell tonsilectomy).

If anyone catches a glimpse of Mr. Long's wandering Logic class, will they kindly drop Vinnie Evans a clue! The pressure of playing detective so early every Monday morning has started to get him... Kindly address Beatrice Place as Mrs. Marden henceforth fans... she took advantage of 1948 about two weeks ago. Well another class election is completed thanks to Jackie Keefe and her committee... I wonder if anyone ever did find out what vice presidents do.

Of Barrons and Bars

Here's a short cheery greeting to ol' John Barron from all his many UB fans... John just went thru a leg operation so 'til the cast comes off, we're all sweating him out on the campus. Beta Gama's got a sweet lil party cooked up for the kids in the Main Street Nursery... one of the bestest Christmas surprises!

Lenny Iacurci and Warren Chamberlain have it all figured out—the Stables is the Officers' club whilst the Fairfield Snack Bar is strictly for enlisted men... Some of the reasons for the Stables taking over: more girls, "hot" hamburgers, girls, "hot" soup, girls, the local juke-box, more girls... Those gals staggering around the campus in two unmatched socks are suffering all for the sake of Theta Epsilon... they're pledges, ya see... also the girls are planning a monster party in the Winter Quarters for some time real soon.

Helen Jobst's poor ol' lip is really swollen this bright Monday A.M. ... Hi Ya, Bobby!
